“ Thank you to everyone that came to show their love to my Grandmother today. She was a wonderful lady. I will miss her so much. She was so much fun, a very different kind of Grandma. She was stubborn and opinionated and I loved that about her! I think I inherited that trait from her and I'm proud to have it. She loved to watch the Braves play so I hope she has a big screen TV in Heaven. You better not bother her while the game is on! <3 you Grandma.

“ I don't know if this is a real memory but I seem to remember going to Illinoise (as i would call it as a kid) with her and meeting maybe a Martin. I remember he looked just like Grizzly Adams to me for some reason. And I remember seeing a gigantic anaconda looking snake on a dirt road and Martin cutting its head off. No one else seems to remember this but its clear as day in my memory. Maybe I never even met Martin or went to Illinoise but I swear i did. Im pretty sure my brother Michael was with me. Wonder if he remembers the snake and Grizzly Adams.

Grandma Allen was a great lady. I always looked forward to visiting at the Airport and the old house with a metal roof out where Steven lived, then out in the middle of nowhere where Grandpa made those wooden life-sized airplanes. They were some cool grandparents!

“ Oh man I remember those airplanes he made! They were so awesome. Jonathan and I used to play in the one in his yard at Air Park Estates all the time. You know my Dad lives in that house now?

“ To the Allen family, my prayer are with you at this time. One o fmy memories of your mother is the time her and your father let my sister, Mary and I come live with them for a few months. She had the greatest laugh. Also the trip to Idaho and how she hated the roads as they were not straight and one side was straight down.

“ To the Allen family, so sorry for the lost of your mother. One of my biggest memories of your mother is when I travel to Ga with my parents and saw a chain gang. I also remember the laughter she shared with my folks when she traveled to Idaho.

I am so sorry to hear about Grama's passing. My prayers & thoughts are with each one of you. Grama & I had a very good relationship. I loved helping her with her flowers, she could grow anything. She always told it like it was. I will cherish my memories of her. She is in heaven watching over each one of you. Now Grampa & Grama are back together again.. Walking the streets of gold....
