“ Junior was a wonder person. When I first started working at Walmart I was very nervous. He made me feel welcomed and showed me the ropes on how to survive working there. He would come to check on me several time a day. I felt so blessed to have him as a friend. My prayers are with the family. Rest In Peace Junior. I'll never forget you.

“ Lots of memories when I think of the good times shared working with "Junior" at Hartson-Kennedy. He was a good man, always dependable and would find a way to get the job done. He never met a stranger, was full of joy. Prayers for the family....
